BECKHAM PUTS PEN TO BILLS.

Gov. Beckham signed a number of bills last week that were passed by the General Assembly towards the close of the session, and the act freely on some and allowed others to become laws without his approval. Loochey.—Regulating livery stable keepers to keep a record of all vehicles used, securing the signature of the patron and requiring him to state how long he wishes to use the horse or conveyance and how far he intends to go. Any violation of the law is declared to be a misdemeanor, the penalty being fine or imprisonment or both. The giving of a detentions name also comes under the ban of this law.

B. B. No. 69, by Henry George.—Making it unlawful to sell liquor by wholesale in a local option district, except that manufacturers may sell their own make. The exception is made in order that distilleries may not be driven out of local option districts.

This institution has existed for almost half a century, and is said to be the only coeducational institution of the kind in the South. Under the Day law Berea College cannot exist after July of this year unless it provides a separate school either for the whites or the blacks at a distance of not less than twenty-five miles from the seat of Berea College.

SHORT & HAYNES UNUSUAL OFFER

Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half-Price, and Guarantee a Cure

"It isn't often that we have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said Short & Haynes to a Breckinridge News man who dropped into their store. "But we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis."

"The Dr. Howard company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorize us to sell their regular fifty cent bottles at half-price, 25 cents, and although we have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory."

"One great advantage of this specific," he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse and every one has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water."

To Move Barber Shop.

Chas. Hamman will move his barber shop this week from the rear of the Lightfoot building, on the north side of Main street, to the packing room in the eastern half of M. Wife's Children.

For a long time the two year old child of Mrs. P. L. McPherson, 30 N. Tenth St., Harrisonburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of the Chacabarin Tablets and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure, and she is now well and strong. For sale by Short & Haynes.

WIND AND RAIN CAUSE DAMAGE.

Two severe rain and wind storms swept through the Ohio Valley last week, doing a great amount of damage to farm buildings and fences in many sections and causing some loss of life. The rain in some sections was the heaviest for years, and hundreds of people were rendered homeless by flooded districts. Lightning during the storm on Tuesday killed several persons, and heavy hail caused the death of many young pigs and lambs in Kentucky. The storm Friday night was more severe, than the one Tuesday in some parts of the county.

In Indiana eight persons were drowned in floods and the property loss was about $10,000,000. Arkansas, Michigan and other states suffered in an equal manner.

No one was killed in this county but one former resident lost his life by lightning and another was seriously injured. Wm. Masterson, aged nineteen, whose home was formerly at Lohant, six miles above Stephensonport, was killed by a bolt of lightning at Lohant, Hancock county on Tuesday. He leaves a wife and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Masterson, of this county. His funeral was held at Blackfoot Thursday.

John Batt, a workman for the city railway company of Owensboro, was nearly killed Friday night by an awning and several tons of brick and mortar falling on him on Main street in that city. Two ribs were broken and he received internal injuries. The result of his injuries is doubtful. Mr. Batt is well-known here, where he resided several years ago.

From over the county reports have been received of much damage done to fences and farm buildings.

Barns Blown Down.

Raymond, Ky., March 29.—(Special.)—The storm Friday night did considerable damage here. Aaron Norton's barn was unroofed and those of J. B. Detschke and Wm. Hall were blown down.

Hard on Webster Farmers.

Webster, Ky., March 29.—(Special.)—Many of our farmers can not repair the damage done to fencing barns, etc., by the storm last Friday night in time to plant a crop.

Desire Full Attendance.

Harrisonburg, Ky., March 29.—(Special.)—President Granville S. Wilson, of the Breckinridge County Dark Tobacco Growers' Association, was in town Monday. He says the association will meet here on Saturday, April 2, to transact important business. A full attendance of all members and others who are in sympathy with the movement is desired.

Wm. Cox Killed.

William Cox, son of J. D. Cox, of Henderson, who is a relative of the Coxes of Breckinridge county, was killed Wednesday afternoon, near Hopkinsville, on the Illinois Central railroad of which he was the foreman for the Cerulean Springs section. While crossing a bridge he was thrown from a construction train, his body striking the stone abutment and plunging into the swollen stream thirty feet below. His body never came to the surface, but was found below the bridge when the river was dragged. Cox was thirty-two years old and leaves a wife and three children. Zack Cox, of Ekron, was among those who attended the funeral which was held at Corydon, Ky.

Attractive Easter Window.

One of the most attractive window displays seen in a local store is J. C. Nolt and Bro's. Easter window, Chas. Fallon decorator. The decorations represent the awakening of spring, the central figure amidst a beautiful array of birds, flowers, etc., being a little fairy driving four white rabbits, which are hitched to a tiny wagon, on a field of green.

LOSS TO THE COUNTY.

Harrisonburg, Ky., March 29.—(Special.)—Mr. Alexander Hendry, who died last week at his home near Raymond, was born in Scotland, in 1839. While yet a small boy, being an orphan, he emigrated to this country and located in Trenton, N. J. At the age of sixteen years, he came to Kentucky, where he lived until his death. By trade he was a blacksmith. He also owned a fine farm near Raymond, and was a progressive, up-to-date farmer and business man.

He was married in 1862 to Miss Zerula Pendleton. To this union was born eight children, who, together with the widow, survive to mourn his loss. He was a kind, affectionate husband and father, and a true and faithful friend and in his death the county suffers the loss of one of its best and most valued citizens.

MRS. G. F. WEST DEAD

Harrisonburg, Ky., March 29.—(Special.)—Mrs. Green F. West, after a lingering illness, died March 23, at the residence of her father, Jubal Hook, Sr., at this place. The funeral was conducted the following day, by the Rev. W. H. Calvert, the interment being in the Eliza Meador graveyard, near here.

The deceased leaves a husband and three children, and many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was a devoted Christian woman and had been a faithful member of the church of her choice since early girlhood.

The sympathy of the community is with the stricken relatives in this, their sad affliction.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "He was playing and being with him and a terrible cough set in, he heaved, Doctor treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He is now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung disease. Guaranteed by Short & Haynes, Druggists. Price 30c and $1. Trial bottles free.

The fight was a draw but Briddle, the heavier man, seemed to have the advantage. The affair was "pulled off," under police protection and was a regulation contest.

W. B. OELZE,

LEADING JEWELER AND STATIONER,
CLOVERPORT, KY.

Last Lecture April 9.

Harrisonburg, Ky., March 29.—(Special.)—A. W. Hawks, better known as "Sunshine Hawks," will deliver his popular lecture, entitled "People I Have Met," at the City Hall, on the evening of Saturday, April 9. This will be the last lecture of the season. Since the trustees of the town have decided to exact a license from the Lyceum, they have decided that they cannot afford to continue these lectures and readings.

They have already lost $100 and they feel that a license tax is too great a burden to bear, as it would simply amount to an additional loss which they would have to pay. As this is the last lecture of the series, it is hoped that a large audience will hear Mr. Hawks.

Mrs. G. W. Short was the hostess of the Ladies' Reading Club last Thursday afternoon.

"Ditch the public roads" is the advice of our Webster correspondent and it is good advice. If all of our correspondents would take a whack at the public roads and keep it up they would make it so warm for the Fiscal Court that they would soon be glad to ditch them or do most anything else to improve them. The public road system of Breckenridge county is a menace to its prosperity and is especially a drawback to the farmer.
Everybody ought to wake up to the importance of good roads. And when everybody's awake something will be done.

Thacher so perfected the process of manufacture, that it never fails to bring the expected relief when taken according to directions.
Thousands of sick ones to whom life has been a burden have written grateful letters of thanks.
"I have suffered greatly with indigestion, constipation, also a severe liver trouble, with loss of appetite. Could not rest well at night; in fact, had no energy to work or even walk around. I felt like I was packing a heavy load, and was easily exhausted, until I took Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, which helped me almost from the first dose.
When I had taken one and one-half bottles I felt like a different man, and I knew that it was due entirely to your medicine. I used in all three bottles, and consider myself perfectly cured. At this time my appetite is good, I sleep well, and feel strong and refreshed on arising in the morning."
If you need a medicine write to-day for a free sample bottle and "Dr.
Thacher's Health Book." Give symptoms for advice. We simply ask you to try it at our expense. We know what it will do. At all druggists. 50 cents and $1.00.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Reported by Dan Brooks & Co., Central Stock Yards.

Louisville, March 30.—Cattle—Arrivals were light and market rule active for all the better classes, fully butchered, steers and heifers being in active demand and value 10 to 15 c higher; common and medium kinds were also favored with some improvement and moved freely at quotations. Bulls, canners, fresh cows and springers unchanged. Best grade of stockers and feeders moved readily at steady to strong market values; inferior kinds slow at unchanged prices. Prime heavy shipping steers ruled active at top market values, medium kinds fully steady, then well cleared at the close. Prospects steady.
 Calves—Market ruled active at top prices; choice $5.00 to $5.50; common and heavy calves $3.50 to $4.50.
 Hogs—Market opened steady on all classes, offerings which were only fairly liberal, were disposed of readily at the following prices: Choice corn-fed hogs, 165 lbs and up, $16.00; 150 to 160 lbs, $15.50; heavy pigs $14.00; light pigs $13.00; $13.50 to $14.50. Market closed firm. Reports from other markets were rather brief, as telegraph communication is badly crippled, due to the severe storm the past few days.

HEALTH SUGGESTIONS.

Part I.

The Evils of Over-doing. The Ways in Which Health May Be Found in Exercise, Correct Diet, Clothing, and Habits. Harm Done to Women and Children by Neglect of Ordinary Health Precautions.

By CHRISTINE TERHUNE HERRICK,
Author of "Cradle and Nursery," "First Aid to the Young Housekeeper," "House-keeping Made Easy," "What to Eat," "In the Trenches," Etc.
Copyright, 1904, by Christine Terhune Herrick.

As a nation we have never learned that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. We forge gaily ahead, doing what pleases us and fail to awake to the fact of our folly until we reach a point where we have to go to work to repair injuries. It would be a great comfort if those who take a deep and peculiar joy in saying "I told you so," could feel that this sort of blunder was confined to men. But women hold a prominent place in the ranks of those who possess a capability for recklessness and a faith in remedies. Several causes have joined to produce this state of affairs. In the first place, women are too busy. They always cut out more than they can accomplish and go on the principle that there are at least twenty-seven hours in every day. If their work were purely selfish one could condemn them unmercifully. But as a rule a big share of it is done for others. Had the ordinary woman a sense of proportion she would see that sometimes she does more for those about her when she does less, so to speak. In other words if she would spare herself a little there would be a likelihood that she would be able to stand out more in her family and social life. But this is something that is hard for her to learn.

A woman almost always means well. If she didn't there would be no chance for her. She might be converted from the error of her ways. But her ways are so good that there seems no ground for criticism. Yet even while she tries to be best in her course of overwork she feels that something is wrong somewhere. I heard one woman voice the opinion of many not very long ago.

"I have so much to fill my hands," she said, "I work all day and have comparatively little time to be with the children. And when the active employments are out of the way and I want to give myself to my family

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because it is so common. Many sudden deaths are caused by it. It is heart disease. Heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidneys will attack the vital organs.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling busy you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Colds. Their Proper Treatment and Cure.

Commonly, the first symptom of a cold is a chilly feeling, accompanied by sneezing or a tickling in the throat. The most frequent of external causes are draughts, wet or cold feet, or going from hot rooms suddenly into cold ones. More frequently there is an inner cause—namely the stagnation of the blood caused by constipation or indigestion. Almost at any rate, it is due to the idea cherished by most of them that the food that agrees with them must be unpleasant, and that that which they love is pretty sure to be considered bad for them, by the advocates of rational diet. There is just enough truth in this to furnish them with a ground for their complaint. It should be the work of the housekeeper to provide a variety on her table and if she looks that for the sake of peace in the family, she must furnish some wholesome articles to sandwich these in between other items which will make less strain upon the gastric powers. It can be done, but it takes time and trouble.

It has become a truism that we are a nation of dyspeptics. Once in a while one hears some happy man or woman boast of an unimpaired digestion. But that some fortunate person is likely to take advantage of such luck and do all sorts of rash things. The truth is seldom appreciated that the person who begins by feeling better than ever, is likely to end by feeling worse. At least, let the child be started right on an attempt made to supply him with a tolerably good stomach. Even if he can eat almost anything without distress, it is extremely foolish to let him do it. He is wasting up the powers of his stomach which should stand by him in later life. If he makes drafts on his principal now he will have none to fall back upon when he is older. Do not allow him to indulge in sausages and griddle cakes and hot bread and pies and puddings and pickles and similar dainties. If he has never had them he will not miss them and the fact that he would enjoy them should move you no more than does his plea to be allowed to consume snips and frits. In either case he must pay a penalty.

Yet the mother tries to spare him the unwholesome will come from green apples and cheerfully permits him to suffer that which follows other unwholesome articles of diet.

common place remedies. The question of diet should be studied by every woman, both for her own sake and for that of her children. The mother of a family should know that there are certain foods that build up tone and muscle, others that make flesh, still others that may please the palate but do little besides. She should learn what these are and give serious thought as to how to combine them to win the best results for her family. She should know that food may be wholesome and yet appetizing, that food which tastes good is more easily digested than that which does not tempt the appetite. If she will bear all this in mind she will grow to feel that her profession as a housekeeper, which she may have thought of as a small thing, is in reality a very important affair.

Much of the prejudice against wholesome food, in the minds of the people, is due to the fact that the food that agrees with them must be unpleasant, and that that which they love is pretty sure to be considered bad for them, by the advocates of rational diet. MRS. CARRIE P. HANNAFORD.

New Life and Strength Came to Her.

A Massachusetts woman, Mrs. CARRIE P. HANNAFORD, of No. 69 Hale St., Beverly, Mass., who is well known locally there, being Treasurer of the Order of the EASTERN STAR, wrote her experience as follows:

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' is, without a doubt, the finest remedy on the market to-day, for female difficulties. I suffered for four years with pains every period, and I dreaded the approach of the time as I knew it meant two or three days' misery. I tried several different widely-advertised remedies, and found that they did me no good whatever. One day a friend called, who had suffered as I was suffering, and who told me that she had been cured through the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, so I purchased a package. I found that the real value of your medicine was greater even than my expectations, and the next month I had hardly any pains. The following month had none at all, and found that my general health was much better and new life and strength had come to me.

"These are the actual facts, and I feel that it is due to you that I should write you. Sincerely yours, MRS. CARRIE P. HANNAFORD."

To Hon. R. V. Pierce, M. D.

Young women or matrons should not allow themselves to look sallow and wrinkled because of those pains and weaknesses which, become chronic and are the result of colds, tight lacing, and imprudent care of the womanly system. Many a woman would look beautiful, have a healthy color and bright eyes if it were not for those drains on her strength and those weaknesses which come all too frequently and make her life miserable. There is a ready-to-use Prescription, used a great many years by Dr. R. V.

between sticking in spurs in the first place or applying remedies to cure the harm done by the spurs. One is hard put to it to decide which is the greater folly.

Return From California.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frazee returned Thursday afternoon from a trip of several weeks in California. They were accompanied on the trip by Miss Jeanne Frazee, of Louisville, and Mrs. G. B. Shaw, of Walton, Ky., formerly of Tolpansport, Ind.

Do You Want Strength.
If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestine. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by All Druggists.

Makes Her First Trip.
The new towboat Nellie Whitte, owned by the Ohio Valley Cattle Company, formerly the Deane Tire company, passed this point last week on her maiden trip to Green river. She went fifty miles up Green river to get a steam tug towed to be used by the company at New Albany. The boat will tow ties from both the lower and upper Ohio, with New Albany as her headquarters.

Will Stand a Strong Chance.
John P. Haswell, Jr., who is a candidate for delegate to the Republican National convention from the Fourth district of Kentucky, was at the Willard last night, coming from Hardinsburg. There are four other candidates in the race for the Republican honors, and Mr. Haswell believes that he will stand a strong chance before the convention. —Friday's Courier-Journal.

Pierce in his large practice as a Specialist in women's diseases, which is not like the many "patent medicines" on the market, as it contains neither alcohol nor any narcotic. It is purely vegetable.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It cures headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and other consequences of womanly disease. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

$500 Reward FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they can not cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. Their financial responsibility is well known to every newspaper publisher and druggist in the United States, with most of whom they have done business for over a third of a century. From this fact it will readily be seen how utterly foolish it would be for them to make the above unprecedented and remarkable offer if they were not basing their offer on curative means having an unparalleled record. No other medicine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription could possibly "win out" as the saying goes, on such a proposition. But they know whereof they speak. They have the most remarkable record of cures made by this world-famed remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially designed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. This wonderful remedy, therefore, stands absolutely alone as the only one possessed of such remarkable curative properties as would warrant its makers in publishing such a marvelous offer as is above made in the utmost good faith.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 65 Main Street, BUFFALO, N. Y.

"I want to tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Fort N. C. "When I began to use it was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having good health again. Could not sit up at night. I noted a great improvement before the first bottle was all used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is liable to, had inflammation of ovaries, pituitary and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and feel tired."

Do You Keep the Boy Busy?

There is another side to this boy-crime business. You can think of it while the youthful car-burn robbers in Chicago are preparing to pay for their crimes with their lives. It is the money side of it.

Do you give your boy money? Has he an income, small, perhaps, but sure? Does he work and feel that he is earning money?

We have in mind one father who was wise enough to realize that fun and business could be mixed and a great deal of natural mischief headed off. He gave his boy an allowance and made him earn it. It was 10 cents a week at the start, and the lad blacked shoes, kept the walk in front of the house swept and did a lot of small work. It accumulated for him in his school holidays.

No, he didn't whine and wonder why somebody else was not assigned the task. HE WAS EARNING MONEY. Early in life he tasted the sweetness of pennies honorably earned. He thought more of the 10 cents that came to him weekly because of his labor than the occasional gifts of money that came to him at other periods. He was a business man. He had small compunction in wasting money given to him outright, but those hard-earned pennies just naturally gravitated into a toy bank. The saving instinct and the working instinct were aroused at the same time. When the weekly salary was increased to 25 cents more labor was added. The boy was not robbed of his play-spell time, but he did have a duty to perform; did acquire a liking for work, and there isn't a doubt that the process helped mold his character.

Another man parceled out a plot of ground to his children and purchased at good prices all the vegetables and flowers they could raise. The natural desire for money spurred on their efforts, the exercise gave them added health, and because of the fact that they had something to do there was little opportunity for them to seek or receive bad company.

These are only suggestions taken from life, suggestions that come within the range of men with limited incomes.

It is a great problem how to interest a boy. He can not sit still and fold his hands. You might as well ask a colt to become a sedate work horse. It is in him to do something every waking hour. It is your business to see that that something is at least innocent in character and that out of it he obtains hearty enjoyment, health, and, if possible, mental improvement.

A wise man who had made a study of children once said: "If by any chance I wanted to start a boy on the road to hell I know of no easier way than to give him a liberal money allowance, with no questions asked about the disposition of the same. The ways are greased for a lad thus equipped."

Ask your boy if he wouldn't like to EARN a little money every week.—Cincinnati Post.

California's Glorious Climate.

San Francisco, Cal., March 15.—J. D. Babbage, Editor Breckenridge News, Cloverport, Ky.

Dear Sir: I have been in California nearly a year and a half, and I can tell from my own experience something of the climate. Because California winters are ideal, the State has gained justly a reputation for cheerful comfort that draws thousands annually from regions of wind, ice and snow. Why sit beside steam pipes or hug coal stoves, when you can bask in the sunshine under an orange tree? Here is opportunity to escape from overpowering summer heat as surely as the severe cold of winter. Here is the paradise of the camper and the sportsman, for no rainstorm will come to upset outing calculations. Here is the most ideal of climates, joined with chances to meet Nature at first hand, in mountain canyons or big tree groves. There are Sierra lakes, so filled with trout that a cable water ordinance ought to be enforced, and hundreds of mineral springs, shown by medical science to be not only equal, but superior, to the famed natural fountains of the old world. Surely California as a summer resort takes second place with no region on earth.

For prospective settlers, as well as tourists, there is pleasure in the thought of climatic comfort. It's an old story to California, but to men who have endured blizzards and have paid fuel bills big enough to endow a college, the subject has a fascinating interest. Libraries could be filled in telling pleasure-seekers of the attractive resorts of California. San Francisco, with its Cliff House, and its picturesque harbor and cool air, is not to be slighted as a seaside resort. In fact, there are many cities, harbors and bays and bays that it would be useless to name which would afford great pleasure to see. Among the big trees of the state the tourists ever find instruction and pleasure.

And the mountains. From Shasta to San Jacinto, from Diablo to Whitney, they are ever new and ever alluring to the admirer of Nature's rugged handiwork. With Yosemite always first and the canyons of King and Kern rivers, there is wide choice for the man who loves the mountains.

I am at the lower end of the Mohave desert, seven miles from Mexico. This is a new and thriving country. All the land is under irrigation, the water source being the Colorado river. It is a fertile eight miles below Yuma, Ariz., and the main canal will carry as much as 100,000 acres. In Kentucky, ice water from the Rockies, but no ice. There are 800,000 acres under this water company and land sells at from $10 to $50 with water stock. We grow wheat, barley, oats, alfalfa, corn and alfalfa, two crops a year. One hundred and sixty-five feet below the sea level is the lowest point.

Mr. Editor, if you don't like this dump it into the waste basket. But send me the News.

Returns to Fordville

Dr. J. E. Barnhill, who has been one of the five successful traveling salesmen for the Litchfield Pharmaceutical company has resigned to take up a lucrative practice at Fordville. Dr. Barnhill gave up a splendid practice at that place several months ago. He is not only a good physician, but has also proven very successful as a salesman while on the road and his employers regret to give him up.

The Care of Children.

It is almost accepted without question that the modern scientific method used in the care and bringing up of infants tend to increase the average duration of human life. Mr. Charlton T. Lewis, writing in Harper's Weekly, presents a different view. When infants were treated with less wisdom, he points out, the weaker perished and the stronger survived. When the sick are cured for so that a large number recover from disease, it is inevitable that on the average those who are thus rescued must be weaker than the community to which they are restored. Thus all these influences, says Mr. Lewis in conclusion, while saving life, "tend especially to save lives which are feeble in a greater proportion than those which are strong and thus in the end must lower the 'vitality' of the great mass of the population."

Distress After Eating

is the best remedy for all disorders of the stomach and digestive organs, because it acts directly and naturally. It is composed of pure port wine, the greatest of all tonics, and pure pepsin—nature's own digestive agent.

Rev. H. Winthrop, of Winnet, N.C., says: "I desire to express to you my thanks for your wonderful Peptonized Port. I was troubled with dyspepsia for five years previous to commencing to use your Port some six months ago. My cure has been wonderful. I am pastor of the First Methodist Church of this place, and my congregation can testify to the great virtues of your preparation. Walther's Peptonized Port is sold in two sizes, 50c. and $1.

How many feathers on a rooster?

Kills Many Woodcocks.

Hawesville, Ky., March 23. Ira Sullivan, a young man of Blackford bottom, came to town Saturday with eight fine woodcock which he had killed the day before. It was the largest bunch ever seen at one time in this county. Sullivan had been killing them for years as jacksnipe and was surprised when convinced of their true nature. The young fellow had no idea he was violating the game laws. He said that there were hundreds of the fine birds in the bottoms and that they came there every year. He said he had sold some in Owensboro at 25 cents each.
